Judgment

Koshy, J.

This is a petition for police protection to peacefully work in the work site of Periyar Sands. It is the contention of the petitioner that on the ground of refusing work for 16 employees represented by the fourth respondent, constant threatening is there. It is also stated that they were engaged by a contractor. Counsel for the fourth respondent submitted that they only demanded work and they are not making any threat. That submission is recorded.

In the above circumstances, police protection is granted as requested and police is directed to grant protection as and when necessary without prejudice to the labour disputes that may be raised by the fourth respondent or his union.

The writ petition is disposed of.
